

The Fleece Hotel, Richmond

Head Housekeeper, Job Description

This is a unique and exciting opportunity to establish your own reputation in a truly exceptional boutique hotel and restaurant, helping to ensure that it becomes a renowned destination within North Yorkshire

This hands-on role will be focussed on providing the wow factor for all our guests. It's the moment that guests walk into the hotel and are impressed, then enter their bedrooms and think 'Wow, this looks wonderful'. Freshly laundered linen, fluffy towels and a welcoming atmosphere. It's all about creating a big impression and exceeding expectations.

The ideal candidate will have,

- Significant experience in Housekeeping
- Attention to detail, working carefully within the minimum of time
- Strong leadership abilities and enjoy team working
- The ability to take the initiative
- Good physical resilience
- Organisation and thoroughness; preparing bedrooms in the minimum length of time whilst respecting internal hotel procedures
- Discretion; not disturbing guests
- An ability to manage and control all linen procedures, including liaising with linen hire company
- An ability to oversee the correct safe use of chemical cleaning agents on all surfaces
- A commitment to training of all team members

We are offering a competitive salary and this role will start in late March 2018
